

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

I am writing to voice my concerns about the FCC's proposal to relax the restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight.

Although as of yet, there is no hard evidence that cell phone use doesn't interfere with navigational instruments, my gut feeling is that this is a "no brainer" and should not even be considered. The introduction of cell phone use in the cabin will not only increase tension among passengers, it will compromise flight attendants' ability to maintain order in an emergency. Most importantly, cell phone use could also enable terrorists or any other emotionally or mentally unstable individuals to coordinate a plan of action more effectively.

I beseech you to please leave the current rules in effect.

Sincerely,

Sandra Davis Beck
